

Society Plans To Celebrate Election Day

Returns To Be Received at Country Clubs and Estates Out of Town and
Many Hotels in the City

Outdoor Program Of Sport Arranged

Many Dinners Followed by Informal Dancing
To Be Among Affairs

ELABORATE preparations are being made by society for the receiving of election returns at country clubs and estates, and in the city at the fashionable restaurants, hotels and the exclusive clubs. Many members of the fashionable world cast their ballots in the country and scores of those who vote in the city will do so early and motor out to the country to participate in the golf, tennis and other outdoor sports arranged for the day and in the affairs of the evening.

At Tuxedo special wires have been installed at the Winter Club by the Eastern Union, where the returns will be received by many of the residents of the Park. Others will receive returns in the homes of Dr. Edward C. Shumore, Mr. Anson McCook Beard, Mr. William M. V. Hoffman and Mr. George Grant Mason.

The country clubs in Westchester county and on Long Island will also receive the returns that night and will be the scenes of many brilliant parties. There will be numerous dinners, followed by informal dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goetz will give a hunt breakfast on their estate at Goshen and will receive the returns in the morning.

Prominent residents of Westchester will attend a dinner dance at the Westchester-Billmore Country Club, where attendants will announce the returns. Special arrangements are made for returns.

In town at the Plaza, Ritz-Carlton, St. Regis, Ambassador, Biltmore, Gotham, Waldorf-Astoria, Lorraine, Pierre, Sherry's, Marguery and Delmonico's special arrangements have been made for the receiving of the returns. Returns will be received at the Union, Knickerbocker, Metropolitan, Union League, University and other clubs in town.

Rodeo Will Mark Social Activities of the Week

The social activities of the week aside from those connected with Election Day will be confined to weddings and the Rodeo, which opened yesterday and will be continued until November 14 in Madison Square Garden for the benefit of the Argonne Association. The association was formed in 1918 as a memorial to the American soldiers who fought in France, and it cares for dependent French orphans.

Mrs. William Pierson Hamilton is chairman and among those in charge of special days are: Dr. Royal Storrs Haynes, in charge of Children's Day tomorrow; Mrs. Stephen Birch will be in charge on Election Day; Mr. M. F. Loughman will direct the Club Day sale, November 8; Mrs. Edward Hardy Clark and Mrs. Charles H. Thibout are in charge of Argonne Auxiliary Day, November 9; School and College Day, November 10, will be under the direction of Mr. Don Kelley; Colonel Elliot C. Bacon will direct Armistice Day, while Argonne Day, November 12, will be under the direction of Mr. Robert L. Bacon.

Miss Gertie Gorman Bride of Mr. Webb At Home Ceremony

Dinner Dance Takes Place
After Marriage; Special
Autumnal Decorations
Used During Wedding

MISS GERTIE EMILY GORMAN, daughter of Mr. S. Jennings Gorman and the late Mrs. G. A. Gorman, was married yesterday to Mr. Charles Webb, son of the late Mr. Charles Henry Webb, at her home, 226 Madison Avenue. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edmund A. Middleton, of Syracuse.

A special altar was erected for the wedding and the decorations consisted of yellow chrysanthemums, Southern smilax and green palms. The attendants were: Mrs. Charles Hill, Mrs. Gladstone McElhiney and Mrs. Irving T. Burdick, who wore frocks of yellow brocade. Their hats were of brown tulle.

Mr. William S. K. Wetmore served as Mr. Webb's best man and the ushers included the bridegroom's cousin, Colonel Howard Thayer Kingsbury; the bride's cousin, Mr. Edmund A. S. Hunter, of Devon, Pa.; Mr. A. Rene Moen and Mr. George A. Taylor.

The bride is a granddaughter of the late Mr. Edmund A. S. Smith and on her father's side is descended from the Price and Jennings families of Fairfield, Conn. Mr. Webb's father, the late Mr. Charles Henry Webb, was a well known author, humorist and journalist, who for three years was literary editor of "The New York Times" and was affiliated with the Tribune under Horace Greeley and with "The New York Herald."

Upon their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Webb will live at 226 Madison Avenue.

Westchester-Fairfield Hunt Meet To Be Held November 11

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
GREENWICH, Conn., Nov. 4.

ONE of the leading social and sporting events of the autumn season will be the annual fall race meet of the Fairfield and Westchester County Hounds, of which Mr. John McE. Bowman and Mr. Roy Jackson are joint masters, which will take place at Nouthorne Farm, the estate of Mr. James McClenahan, King Street and Harrison Avenue, Port Chester, N. Y., on November 11 at 2 p. m. Lovers of the horse in Fairfield and Westchester counties, which include representatives of the best social families, are keenly interested in the coming event.

The biggest and most brilliant social event of the fall season was a Halloween dance held by the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. in the former's building on Monday evening. The "Y" was beautifully decorated throughout. About 1,800 persons were present. Games were enjoyed under the direction of Mrs. George E. Vincent and Mrs. William Hodge.

One of the features was "The Chamber of Horrors," in charge of Miss Benson and a corps of "Y" girls. Dancing in the gymnasium was under the leadership of Miss Mary Lanier. Mr. W. J. Conner had charge of the refreshments. Many of the young people were in costume. Mr. Lee Gibbons was chairman of the general committee.

Members of the Field Club made merry last Saturday night at a supper-dance, there being about 150 present, including a number of those who have returned from out of town resorts during the past summer and are now at their winter homes here. Among the prominent members who entertained were:
